FRIDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 2.

A TICKET THAT WOULD NOT PASS. - The Now York correspondent of the Boston Journal tells this amusing incident:-"A wellknown doctor of divinity was riding the other day in a street car in company with a friend. He is a positive man and resents an insult quite vehemently. Ernestly engaged in conversation, he handed the conductor a ticket as he came to collect the fare. The conductor did not move on. As he remained studying the ticket, the doctor's attention was attracted toward the official, who seemed to be highly interested in the car ticket. He read it; smiled; shook his head, and finally said to the doctor: This may be all very well but the ticket is no good on this line. What's the reason it's no good. I should like to know?' said the testy doctor, lt's one of your own tickets; I bought it this morning. I guess not, said the conductor. The altercation drew the attention of all the passengers. This is very good advice, but it will not pass you over this line; and the conductor read: Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain.' An explosion fol-lowed—amid which the doctor paid his fare and left the car. He has concluded to keep his religious eards in one pocket and his car tickets in another."
